

I find the traffic, weather, and entertainment offered through XM radio to be a great value during my daily commute. I would hate to be "forced" to have to listen to another AM or FM station just to get traffic, and weather.